Claudia Van Westen (left from Holland) with the help of friends and family raised money for the community centre kindergarten in Olmuringiringa and the ex-street boys secondary school project. The kindergarten has 80 children, mostly Maasai, aged from 4 to 6. ACT is supporting 15 ex street boys and young adults in secondary schools and further education. The programme not only provides educational needs but also food, clothes and medical care.

In August 2010 a group of visitors from Canada travelling with Tourcan Vacations donated desks to Olmuringiringa Primary and gave money to some needy families in the community. With the money three families were able to buy goats and iron sheets for building. One member of the group, Hope Yungblut (second from right) also donated money for sports equipment and books.

ACT thanks all its other visitors and friends for their donations of educational equipment and toys this year.
